6 QUESTIONS TO
ASK YOURSELF
TO FIND YOUR GENIUS

FIND YOUR GENIUS

People say that there are two great days in our life. When we are born and when we discover why.

Finding your path in life is your goal in life.

Your path is not your profession, how much money you make, your title, or your successes and failures.

Finding your path means finding out what you were put here on this earth to do.

To reach your potential, you must know where you want to go and where you currently are.

DO YOU LIKE WHAT YOU'RE DOING RIGHT NOW?

If you're not enjoying what you do for a living, you need to take some time to examine why.

If you're not enjoying what you're doing, you need to look at why.

Is it a risk making a change from what you're currently doing to what you want to do? yes.

But it is also a risk in staying where you are.

which risk would you rather live with?

The first step toward change is awareness. The second step is acceptance.

*"The first step toward change is awareness.
The second step is acceptance."*

02 WHAT WOULD YOU LIKE TO DO?

There is a direct connection between finding your passion and reaching your potential.

When you locate your passion, nothing will be able to stop you. Passion is the key that unlocks many doors.

When you tap into it, it becomes like fuel; it's an energy that unleashes creativity. Locate your passion because it gives you a competitive advantage over those who are just doing it for the money.

When you are in a business connected to your purpose, you will pursue your passion, which creates excitement. When you feel that excitement, it stops being work. It is as natural as the air you breathe.

How will you know it's your passion? Listen to it; your heart will tell you. Pay attention to what you love doing, what comes naturally, what you are willing to do for no money and stay up all night doing it...that's passion.

Finding your passion is your secret weapon. Knowing yourself and what you want to do is one of the most important things you can ever do. It leads you to a life of fulfillment and success.

No-one will be able to take your place.

Q3 CAN YOU DO WHAT YOU WOULD LIKE TO DO?

Do you have the skills to do what you would like to do?

You need to be realistic and align your gifts with opportunities.

There is a difference between having a dream and pulling an idea out of thin air that has no connection with who you are and what you can do.

You will need to have some criteria for knowing if your desire matches the abilities you possess.

- Know the difference between what you want and what you're good at.
- To be successful, you need to be doing what you're good at.
- Know what drives you and what gives you satisfaction
- Know your values and priorities

One of the main keys to being successful and fulfilling purpose is to understand your unique talents and find the right place to use them.

"Discover your uniqueness; then discipline yourself to develop it." Jim Sundberg

DO YOU KNOW WHY YOU WANT TO DO WHAT YOU WOULD LIKE TO DO?

It's very important to know not only what you want to do, but also why you want to do something.

Your motives matter.

When you do things for the right reasons, it gives you strength when things go wrong.

Knowing why keeps you on the right track.

Doing what you were meant to do for the right reasons is living in harmony.

Everything is aligned.

It's important to reflect on your real intentions.

- Take time to reflect
- Explore your intentions and attitudes

"Your vision will become clear only when you look into your heart. Who looks outside, dreams. Who looks inside, awakens." ~Carl Jung

05 DO YOU KNOW WHAT YOU NEED TO DO TO SHIFT?

If you know you need to make that shift, then you need to understand and know what it's going to take to step out.

To get moving, you need to become aware of your thoughts and your decisions.

Examine the thoughts and decisions that are taking you away from where you want to go.

Then take the actions necessary to move. This means being intentional daily. Doing the things that move you closer to your goal.

As you take action, find someone to be accountable to. It's one thing to tell yourself you're going to do something and commit to it. It's another to let others know.

Having accountability is a huge benefit as it keeps you working on things.

Whilst working, you start becoming attractive because as you grow, you will start attracting like-minded people whom you can bounce off of.

06 ARE YOU WILLING TO PAY THE PRICE?

It's been pretty smooth sailing until now, but now we get to the crux of the issue.

Are you willing to do what it takes? Are you ready to fight yourself?

The battle in your mind, any laziness, ignorance. You are the barrier to your success; make no mistake.

The most successful is the one that conquers the battle within. Are you ready for the fight?

Taking steps to do life on your terms will cost you. Some friends may leave, some sacrifices will have to be made.

That's why you have got to know this is your purpose because the cost is great.

Unfortunately, this is where people bow out of the race... they are not prepared to pay the price.

RECAP

Spend some time answering the following questions so you have a plan of action to follow when you're done.

- 1. What would you like to do?
- 2. What talents, skills, and opportunities do you possess that support your desire to do it?
- 3. What are your motives for wanting to do it?
- 4. What steps must you take to start doing what you want to do?
- 5. Whose advice can you get to help you along the way?
- 6. What price are you willing to pay?
- 7. What will it take you in time, resources, and sacrifices?
- 8. Where do you most need to grow? (You must focus on your strengths and overcome any weaknesses that would keep you from reaching your goal.)
